Woman☆ :

My name is Kyoko. I live with my mother, father, little sister, and one dog. My dog's name is Maru. Two years ago, I found him in a box on the street and took him home. I gave some milk to him. Since then, my little sister and I have taken care of him.

Maru is afraid of water and has never swum in the river. But he likes to play with his ball very much. One day, my sister and I went to the park with Maru. My sister threw the ball, and Maru ran after it. But my sister threw it too far. The ball went out of the park, and Maru ran after it. We couldn't find Maru or his ball.

I called my parents. They came to the park right away. We looked for Maru together, but we could not find him. When we got home, Maru was waiting for us there with the ball. We were surprised but happy.

The next day, my father and I made a house for Maru in our garden. It was hard, but we were happy because he really liked the house. Now, he sleeps in his house at night. He looks happy in his house. I'm happy when I see that.
