Woman :

My grandmother has a fruit farm in Shiga. During the summer vacation, I stayed at her house with my parents. When we arrived, she was by her truck. She said, "I've just come back from the market." In her town, a big market is held every Sunday. I really wanted to go to the next one, but we couldn't stay until then. The next morning, we had a lot of vegetables for breakfast. They were from one of my grandmother's friends, Mr. Sasaki. He and my grandmother often exchange their fruit and vegetables at the market. My grandmother ate a tomato and said, "Mr. Sasaki said his tomatoes are especially good this year. He's right." After that, we went out and picked many peaches. My grandmother said I could try one. It was sweet. My mother said, "It's delicious, isn't it? Your grandmother's peach jam is very popular." At lunch time, we had Mr. Sasaki's tomatoes again. This time, my father cooked nice tomato soup with them. After lunch, we took care of the fruit trees. It was hard to walk around and check many trees because the farm was so large! In the trees, I found a lot of green fruit. I said, "Dad, let's come again in fall. We will be able to eat some of them then." When we went back to my grandmother's house, my grandmother was making peach jam. She gave us some. We ate it with bread. It was delicious and I wanted more, but my mother said, "Don't eat too much. Dinner is almost ready." In the evening, we ate my mother's curry. It tasted better than usual because I worked hard. We enjoyed days like this at the farm. Now I'm looking forward to visiting my grandmother's farm again. (20 秒)
