第7問 次の英文をよく読んで、以下の問いに答えなさい。（*印がついた単語には、あとに語注があります。）

Do you like tempura? How about fried chicken? Both of them are cooked in oil. We use many kinds of oil for different things, and cooking is one of them. However, oil is not only useful in the kitchen.

Oil is made from various things. In Japan, some kinds of flowers are used to make oil. The *rapeseed is popular. It's a plant with yellow flowers and is seen in spring. It produces good cooking oil. Its oil was used in *lamps long ago. Fish oil was used for the same purpose. However, it smelled bad when it was burned, so rapeseed oil was better but more expensive. The *camellia is also an important oil plant in Japanese culture. In Japan, people can enjoy its beautiful colorful flowers in winter. Many cooks believe that camellia oil is the best for traditional foods like tempura and udon. It is also loved as hair oil. Many Japanese people believe it keeps their hair beautiful and healthy, so it is sold in drugstores today.

Around the world, there are many other oil plants. Maybe some of you often use *olive oil for cooking. The olive was an important oil plant in Europe. So, olive trees often appear in old books and paintings. The *palm is another major oil plant. It is grown in many hot areas in the world. It is a tall tree which produces fruit with a lot of oil. The oil is used for cooking and making soap. It can be used as a car fuel that is better for the environment than *petroleum. Some people think that it can help people stop air pollution and *global warming. However, there is a problem, too. In some areas, natural forests are destroyed to make palm farms.

We must not forget animal *fats. People take fat from milk and use it for cooking and baking. It is called butter. Meat fat is also important. For example, beef fat is used in dishes like steak, stew, and sukiyaki. Many people like the taste of animal fat very much, but it can cause health problems when we eat too much of it. Doctors sometimes have to tell people to stop eating meat.

There are many types of oil, and they are important in our lives. They are part of our culture, but at the same time, they also cause problems.
