Man: Hi, Emily. Your club will finish at about four today, right? Are you free after that?

Woman: I think so, Haruto. Do you want to play tennis again?

Man: Yes. We haven't played since last week.

Woman: That's right. I need to spend some time outdoors.

Man: I'd like to play outside, too, but the school grounds are still wet from yesterday's rain.

Woman: Oh, that's true, but I don't want to play indoors. What can we do instead?

Man: (the sound of bell)

Woman: It's so hot today. Why don't we get something to drink?

Man: Good idea. There's a good café near the station.

Woman I've been there a few times. Lots of people in our class go there, too.

Man I didn't know that. I really want something cold to drink.

Woman Then maybe iced tea. Their orange tea is really good.

Man Yeah, I tried it just last week. I might get something to eat, too.

Woman: (the sound of bell)

Man: Excuse me. I want to go to Ogawa Art Museum. Which station should I get off at?

Woman: You should get off at Kaede Station. The museum is a five-minute walk from there.

Man: I see. Does this train stop at Kaede Station?

Woman: Yes, it does. You could also walk from here. It's a bit far, but it's mostly a straight line. So you won't get lost.

Man: How long will it take?

Woman: You look like a fast walker, so maybe 15 minutes.

Man: (the sound of bell)

問 4

Woman: Hi, Sho. Are you ready for the chorus contest tomorrow?

Man: Hi, Layla. I think so, but I'm a little nervous.

Woman: Me, too. Our class sings right after yours, right?

Man: Yes, our class goes second, and yours goes third.

Woman: What song did your class choose?

Man: We chose Song of Hope. It's a little difficult. I don't think many students know the song.

Woman: I know that song. It's beautiful. Our class will sing Shining Sky.

Man: (the sound of bell)

JT 問5

Man: Lily! Over here! I was worried I wouldn't find you in this crowd.

Woman: Haruto! I'm so glad I found you. I'm surprised there are so many people.

Man: Winter fireworks are quite rare. It's our town's 100th anniversary event, so it's special.

Woman: I've never seen winter fireworks before. The air is clearer in winter, so the fireworks should look even more beautiful!

Man: You're right. We're lucky it's not too cold today.

Woman: And those lanterns on the street are so pretty. The town looks like a scene from a storybook.

Man: Hmm,... That yakisoba smells great.

Woman: Haruto... I'm here being moved by the view, and all you can think about is food?

Man: (the sound of bell)

Ken Hi Amy. Look at this. My father gave me a drone for my birthday yesterday.

Amy Happy birthday, Ken! It looks like a small plane. Will you make a movie with it?

Ken How did you know that?

Amy Because I remember the video you made last year. You used your smartphone to make a video of cherry blossoms for our school's video contest, right?

Ken You saw that? I wasn't happy with it because I couldn't hold my smartphone well, and the video shook a lot. It was hard to watch, so I want to try again. The video contest is at the end of May.

Amy May? So you still have a lot of time. What kind of video will you make this time?

Ken The contest is about the natural world. I want to make a video about the change of seasons. I will fly the drone over the river every week from winter to spring.

Amy From winter to spring .... That sounds beautiful. The snow will disappear, cherry blossoms will appear, and the green trees will be beautiful.

Ken Exactly. But I am still a little worried. The drone can be moved by the wind, so the video may shake again.

Amy I think it will be fine. The view from the sky is different from the ground. Even if the drone moves a little, it's no problem.

Ken That's right. A little movement of very wide shots won't be noticed.

Amy But you do need to be careful of strong winds. You should practice controlling your drone more.

Ken Yes. I definitely need to practice. I think early mornings are the best times to film. The sun will be beautiful then.

Amy I agree! The early morning light in the winter is beautiful!

Ken I will practice in the big field behind our school first. That place is safe.

Amy That sounds good!

Ken It will be difficult, but I will practice hard and not give up.

Amy I know you can do it, Ken! You always try hard and finish what you start.

Ken Thank you. By the way, I want to add music to the video after I've finished recording. What kind of music should I use?

Amy I want to help. Let me give you a recording of me playing the piano.
Ken Really? Would you mind doing that?
Amy No problem. When you finish the video, show it to me. I will record music that matches the scenery.
Ken That's wonderful. Good music will make the video more beautiful.
Amy I'm sure you can win the contest.
Ken I'm sure I can with your help!
